

Scouts Rehearse For Convention Next Year

Western Pennsylvania's Boy Scouts who are members of the Fraternal Order of the Arrow, will meet in a tune-up convention Saturday, Sunday and Monday at Twin Echo Camp.

This 3-day meet will be a rehearsal for next year's national convention which will also be held at Twin Echo. More than 600 delegates from 48 states are expected to be on hand for the 1940 convention.

J. A. Brunton, Jr., Camp director and national Chief of the Arrow Order, will address the scouts Sunday. Committees will be appointed, and final plans made for next year's convention program.
